Vucic receives keys to Banja Luka: I am proud to say I am Banja Luka citizen now – N1

📅 April 22, 2021

After receiving the keys to the city of Banja Luka on Thursday, Serbian President Aleksandar Vucic said he was proud that he can say that he is now one of Banja Luka's citizens.

This city, Vucic stressed, is an example of how people of different religions and ethnicities can coexist.

“This is the most western city with a Serb majority, the one that shows all qualities that we must preserve as a people. Especially today when politicians are using horrible words such as war, Banja Luka must serve as an example that people of different religions and ethnicities can live together,” Vucic said.
